Chairman Palmitese called the regular meeting of the Granby Zoning Board of Appeals, held on Tuesday January 24, 2023, to order at 7:05 pm.

AGENDA: Duso Public Hearing
Regular Meeting

MEMBERS: Tyler Palmitese, Chairman
Peter LeoGrande – absent
Melanie Strong

ALSO PRESENT: Robert Duso, and Town Clerk Janet Ingersoll.

PUBLIC HEARING

Robert Duso

Chairman Palmitese opened the Hearing at 7:08 pm.

A request for relief of Granby Zoning Ordinance Section IV, Subsection B – Table: Rear yard setback requirement, in regards to the proposed construction of a 24' x 16' storage building pole barn on property located at 988 County Rt 8, Fulton, NY 13069; Tax Map #252.00-03-09.

Chairman Palmitese explained that the ZBA did not have the requisite number of members present tonight to conduct the meeting. The meeting was rescheduled to Wednesday, February 1, 2023 at 7:00 pm. Chairman Palmitese tabled the Hearing until that time.

PRIVILEGE OF THE FLOOR

~ Chairman Palmitese discussed a conversation that he had previous to the meeting with the Town Attorney, Jamie Lynn Sutphen. He was pleased with the discussion and excited for the support they would provide going forward. He would like to meet an hour earlier for the next meeting to allow members the opportunity to meet the attorneys and participate in a review discussion of the process.

ADJOURN

A motion was moved by Chairman Palmitese to adjourn the meeting at 7:30 pm, and seconded by Member Strong, all were in favor and the motion carried.

Respectfully submitted by:

Lisa Somers
ZBA Clerk
